G                 Em        G                     Em
  The house is a shambles       Broken glass in the street
D         C                        Em                    D
  Guttering candles.               blood on the sheets.

G                 Em       G                       Em
  We burned all the kindling     Passed the bottle around
D                       C           Em                    D
  Watched the last coals dwindling  and the ice melting down
