INTRO: E (slowly)

E E6 E F#
There was a man A lonely man
B Esus E
Who lost his love through his indifference
E E6 E F#
A heart that cared That went unshared
B Esus E B7
Until it died Within his si-----lence

Esus E E
And solitaire's the only game in town
Dbm
And every road that takes him Takes him down
F#m B
And by himself it's easy to pretend
Esus E B7
He'll never love again

[With Emotion:]

Esus E
And keeping to himself he plays the game
Dbm
Without her love it always ends the same
F#m B
While life goes on around him everywhere
Esus E B7
He's playing soli--taire

[Wistfully:]

E E6 E F#
A little hope Goes up in smoke
B Esus E
Just how it goes Goes without say--ing

E Esus E F#
There was a man A lonely man
B Esus E B7
Who would command The hand he's playing

"Solitaire" as sung by Karen Carpenter

[with emotion]

Esus E
And solitaire's the only game in town
Dbm
And every road that takes him Takes him down
F#m B
And by himself it's easy to pretend
Esus E B7
He'll never love again

Esus E E
And keeping to himself he plays the game
Dbm
Without her love It always ends the same
F#m B
While life goes on around him everywhere
Esus E B7
He's playing soli---taire

Esus E
And solitaire's the only game in town
Dbm
And every road that takes him Takes him down
F#m B
While life goes on around him everywhere...

[Wistfully:]

Esus E
...He's playing soli----taire

"Thank you, THANK YOU to jundelacruz0722 for putting together this emotional tribute to Karen Carpenter. She was an angel that God called too soon away - He must have missed her too much to leave her on this soiled planet any longer."
