

THE ROAD by Emmylou Harris

[Intro]: E A Asus A E A Asus A

E A E
I can still remember every song you played

E A
Long ago when we were younger and we rocked the night away

E A E
How could I see a future then, where you would not grow old?

E A
With such a fire in our belly, such a hunger in our souls

E B
I guess I probably loved you when those words rolled off your tongue.

C#m A
It seemed that we were traveling under some old lucky sun.

E A
I know I couldn't save you and no one was to blame

E B E
But the road we shared together once will never be the same.

A B E A E
Hey-ey gonna roll away Won't be coming round again

A B E A
Hey-ey with a song, I pray And on the wings of a song

E A
I'll fly away

I wandered in the wilderness, for a while I was so lost.

To everything there is a season and every blessing has its cost.

So I took what you left me, put it to some use

E

Went looking for an answer with those three chords and the truth.

B

I come down from the mountain, I come walkin' in your shoes.

C#m

I was taken for a gambler when I had no more to lose.

E

For he put me on that path, how could I refuse?

And I have spent my whole life out here working on the blues

THE ROAD by Emmylou Harris

E A E
So I carried on, you can't be haunted by the past.

E A
People come, people go, and nothing ever lasts.

E A E
But I still think about you, wonder where you are.

E A A
Can you see me from some place up there among the stars?

E B
But down here under heaven, there never was a chart.

C#m A
To guide our way across this crooked highway of the heart.

E A
And if it's only all about the journey in the end

E B E
On that road I'm glad I came to know you, my old friend.
