HINT: Use a capo behind 2nd Fret and play the "Em" chord shapes shown below. Doing so will put you in the Key of F sharp minor, as recorded.

Intro: Em D6 Am7 Em Em D6 Am7 Em

Em D6
There was no way they could have known that morning

Am7 Em
But they awoke upon a fateful day,

Em D6
A killer wind came down without a warning,

Am7 Em
And no one had the chance to get away.

D6 Am7 Em

Em D6
The firemen were brave: they fought with with honor.

Am7 Em
But the blaze was more than it appeared to be.

Em D6
And one by one they fell beside their comrades,

Am7 Em
The victims of a foe they could not see

----- CHORUS :

C Em
Mama where are you?

C Em
Papa where did you go?

C Em
And where are all the children who used to play here?

B C Em
Only Heaven Know.....s.

What they saw defied all explanation.

Am7 Em
Someone said the trees were glowing red.

Em D6
They say the light came from the radiation.

Am7 Em
But maybe it's the Spirits of the Dead

D6 Am7 Em

-----
Repeat CHORUS, Further Above
-----

Em D6
Gone the homes, the gardens, and the playgrounds...

Am7 Em
Gone the souls who made their livings here.

D6 Am7 Em

Em D6
They say this place will always be a Ghost Town.

Am7 Em
It will be for at least 600 years.

-----
Repeat CHORUS, Further Above
-----

The words on pages 3 & 4 are additional to the original Ghost
Town lyrics and fit its melody. Their time is post-Chernobyl.
These supplemental thoughts are respectfully dedicated to the victims, their families, and all survivors of the September 11
2001 World Trade Center attacks.
May we all learn from tragedy and strive to overcome hate.

Em D6 Am7 Em

Em D6
There was no way they could have known that morning

Am7 Em
But they awoke upon a fateful day,

Em D6
A killer sword came down without a warning,

Am7 Em
And with a stroke they all were slain that day.

D6 Am7 Em

Em D6
The firemen were brave: they fought with with honor.

Am7 Em
But the hell above was going to make them die.

Em D6
And one by one they fell, the World Trade Towers

Am7 Em
The victims of a foe from foreign skies.

----- CHORUS:

C Em
Mama where are you?

C Em
Papa where did you go?

C Em
And where are all the children you used to care for?

B C Em
Only Heaven Know.....s.

-----

Em D6
The ways they died defied all words of horror

Am7 Em
Some jumped or burned; In thousands did they fall.

Em D6
The seas of tears shed by the victims mourners

Am7 Em
Will never drown the vision of it all.

-----
Repeat CHORUS of your Choice
-----

Em D6
Some will say they really had it coming

Am7 Em
Some will say they're innocent, one and all

Em D6
Either way the sad result was stunning

Am7 Em
There's hell to pay when your back's against the wall.

-----
Repeat CHORUS of your Choice
